

Natalia Kadyrova is a Franco-Russian pianist with a sound palette of exceptional richness and sensitivity.

From her childhood, Natalia won numerous competitions, regularly perform in Russia, France, Netherlands, Spain...

Student of Sergei Markarov at the "Ecole Normale de Paris-Cortot", later she won the first prize at the Conservatoire Supérieur de Paris under the direction of Brigitte Engerer.

Enjoying the experience of musicians such as Rena Schereshevskaya, Pierre Laurent Aimard or Vladimir Mendelssohn, Natalia's has revealed a talented chamber player (first price in UFAM competition, in quintet with the Deixis quartet, duo with Mariam Sarkissian in unpublished vocal repertoire).

Natalia graduated in state pedagogical diplome (Russian and French) .